being. Everything we do should be about elevating wellness and mitigating the stresses that we can control.

3. None of us are untouched. None of us are ok. But the impacts are not equal nor are they equitable. That understanding should drive our interactions and inform our consciousness about the space we take especially those of us who benefit from unearned privilege.
4. There are no answers. We are all (including myself) listeners and learners.

- Understand the impact of teacher training, support and evaluation on student achievement and school progress
- Analyze the role and impact of teacher's unions in Los Angeles and the nation
- Analyze the role and impact of parent and family engagement in schools and how this engagement affects student achievement
- Analyze the role and impact of charter schools for students enrolled in charters and on students enrolled in LAUSD

The project will have three significant components. The first component will be a presentation to the class (this presentation may include additional members of the Oxy and LAUSD community). Student teams will have wide latitude in how to present their report, but my guess is that some type of power point and some narrative research summary. The second group component will a community action component. Here, group members will either present the project findings or recommendations to either LAUSD Board staff, LAUSD Board Members, a Board or Committee Meeting, City Council, County Office of Education (LACOE) and/or staff from the California Department of Education (CDE). While the presentation may contain similar information to the in-class presentation (incorporating feedback from myself and your colleagues), I expect the group to employ lobbying and presentation strategies that we will go over in class during the semester.

The final component to the project will be an individual analysis paper that will cover both the issue and a detailed reflection about the group process you participated in throughout the semester. I will expect you to incorporate new research and sources into your paper, but you should use the group's primary research as well. I will distribute a
